

March 15, 2025

Dear NJCAA National Office

It is truly an honor and a privilege to write a letter of recommendation for Greg McVey for the NJCAA Men's Senior Administrator. Greg is our current Athletics Director. I have known him as the Interim Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at Kansas City Kansas Community College. I am Greg's immediate supervisor and have observed him in a variety of roles including mentoring coaches, overseeing a variety of facilities and developing athletic programs rather than teams.

It was a pleasure to work with Greg on a daily basis. He might be described as a "jack of all trades" in that he can quickly assess a situation, figure out an effective process, and accomplish his goal. He has a superb ability to mediate in inter-personal and intra-personal conflicts and possesses an immensely accurate empathy for individual concerns. He understands group dynamics and can truly motivate. In fact, he is able to balance, in a remarkable manner, a concern for persons and getting the job done.

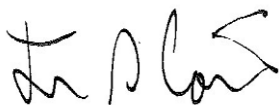

Greg can readily deal with complex issues, adapts well to ambiguity, and draws very logical conclusions. Greg has demonstrated his superb ability to organize and deal with details. Combining all of this with his phenomenal creative powers and the outcome is a leadership style expressed through a consistent and enthusiastic manner.

As an educator, I have seen numerous occasions when Mr. McVey stepped forward to deal with difficult and complex issues. He inspires confidence and trust in his coaches and administrative staff. He is at the same time a "change master" yet one who "sticks to the knitting." He can be assertive yet is very much a team player. In short, he is well rounded. Greg has many fine interpersonal qualities not yet mentioned. His principal strengths as I see them are: a positive and enthusiastic outlook; adaptability; a sense of humor; integrity; a conceptual thinker; insightfulness; tolerance; and persistence.

I have no doubt Greg will excel as a NJCAA Men's Senior Administrator. He will not only meet NJCAA standards but will serve with distinction.

In conclusion, Greg McVey is the very epitome of a collegiate athletic director. In my over 40 years as a higher education administrator, I assign my highest recommendation to Mr. Greg McVey.

Sincerely,

Tom Corti, Ph.D.

Interim Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management
Kansas City Kansas Community College